CONSISTENCY COUNTS

A Christian's walk with God was never intended to be taken by himself. We need people in our lives to guide us, help us, lead us and encourage us into being who and what God wants us to be.

This month we are emphasizing consistency in our small groups, challenging you to be present in your group the first four Sundays in March. Why? Because consistency counts in making times of Bible study all they can be to ourselves, and to the others God has placed in our lives.

Don't have a small group? Visit the Event Center this Sunday, or call Roger Crew at (205) 655-2403...we'll help you find the one that's right for you!
